Damn, I just saw some at your cube and I said I hadn't heard. (Kathy's been beset by PARS and Rosemont.)

Yes, I'm fine. Thanks for checking. I have annual leave today, but forgot to set my out of office message because I left in such a hurry on Friday. Hopefully Kathy was able to tell you that this was an expected absence (she did know about it) – I just got home from Monterey where I ran a half marathon yesterday.

You're not at your desk and it's not your CDO. Do you need me to write something on the whiteboard?

Thank you
Carol
